

Plaisir d'Amour

JPE Martini (1784) - arr. Peter McDonald

[D] Plaisir [A] d'a-[D]mour
Ne [G] dure [D] qu'un mo-[A]ment.
Cha-[E7]grin [A7] d'a-[D]mour dure [G] toute
La [D] vi-[A7]-e[D].

[D] The joys [A] of [D] love
Are [G] but a [D] moment [A] long.
The [E7] pain [A7] of [D] love en-[G]dures
The [D] whole [A7] life [D] long.

[D] Your eyes [A] kissed [D] mine,
I [G] saw the [D] love in them [A] shine.
You [E7] brought [A7] me [D] heaven right [G] there
When your [D] eyes [A7] kissed [D] mine.

[D] My love [A] loves [D] me,
And [G] all the [D] wonders I [A] see.
A [E7] rain-[A7]bow [D] shines in my [G] window;
My [D] love [A7] loves [D] me.

[D] And now [A] he's [D] gone
Like a [G] dream that [D] fades in the [A] dawn,
But the [E7] words [A7] stay [D] locked in my [G] heartstrings;
My [D] love [A7] loves [D] me.

Repeat first verse

